

6516204913.txt

Open and fair competition is a foundation of our capitalist economy. How can anyone with a conscience pass a law that clearly favors one entity over another? This would be no different than passing a law that outlaws showing the weather channel on cable!